NO NEGROES WANTED IN A. R. U. RANKS.

COLOR LINE DRAWN BY RAILROAD MEN.

Soldiers Met by the Mob at Mount Olive, Ill.—Women Foremost in the Demonstration—Many Arrests Are Made—Indiana Miners Still Remain Out.

CHICAGO, June 1.—The American Railway Union this morning refused to admit negroes to the ranks.

CHICAGO, June 19.—The most animated discussion in the convention of the American Railway Union took place yesterday on the question of drawing the color line in the constitution of the order. The discussion occupied the entire day and the convention adjourned until 9 o'clock this morning with the question still in doubt. The roll-call of delegates will in all probability be called on the question immediately upon the opening of the convention this morning. It is expected the proposition to strike out the words "born of white parents" will be adopted. If this be the result the constitution will remain the same as before the convention on this question, leaving the matter of eligibility to membership wholly in the hands of the various local unions.

SOLDIERS MET BY ANGRY MOBS.

Women Foremost in the Demonstration—Many Arrests Made.

MOUNT OLIVE, Ill., June 19.—An angry mob, composed largely of women, met the Seventh regiment yesterday afternoon. Children echoed the curses shrieked at the soldiers and sullen, evil-visaged men muttered threats of vengeance. For a time it looked as if an attempt would be made to overpower the militia. The mob was led by a lean, gaunt female whose hair was of a grizzly gray. Her name was Bridget Brakery and she raved like one of the furies.

The United States marshals at once began the work of arresting those rioters for whom they had warrants. Twenty were arrested during the afternoon and the determined aspect of the soldiers awed the would-be rioters. Mount Vernon has been at the mercy of the alien anarchists from southern and eastern Europe for the last week. Of the 2,500 inhabitants fully 85 per cent are of foreign birth. There are 600 coal miners here, most of whom are natives of Italy, Saxony, Poland, and Hungary. It is these foreigners who have created nearly all the disturbance. By their anarchist methods they have practically terrorized the town. Last Thursday night they seized a freight car loaded with provisions on the Wabash tracks and looted it. The same night they stole three carloads of coal from the Chicago, Peoria & St. Louis railway, which is in the hands of receiver appointed by the United States district court. They even became so violent as to threaten the life of Rev. Father Zerbronski, who has charge of the Polish Catholic church here, because he refused to acquiesce in their depredations. Time and again have they declared that they would dynamite the militia if the governor dared send it here to suppress their riotous demonstrations. It was to suppress a horde of anarchists of this variety that the Seventh regiment came to Mount Olive.

The town is quiet now, though large numbers of men are loitering about the streets denouncing the ordering out of the militia. They declare it is an infringement on their rights and unnecessary.

WILL NOT ACCEPT MINERS' SCALE.

Operators Repudiate the Action of the Conference at Springfield.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 19.—The operators of the Springfield district will not accept the scale proposed by the miners at the conference. All of the leading operators are unanimous in declaring that the scale under existing conditions is absurd and that they would rather allow their mines to remain idle than to yield to any such terms. It will probably require another conference of the miners to adjust differences in this district. It is learned on pretty good authority that the miners at their conference agreed to submit the question, in case the operators refuse to accept the scale, to a board of arbitrators composed of one man selected by the miners, another by the operators, and a third by these two. It is understood the miners have resolved to ask Lieut.-Gov. Gill to act as their arbitrator in case this mode of settlement is resorted to. It is also learned that the miners have decided to lend financial aid to the defense of ex-Representative John L. Geher, who led the mob at Little's mine in Tazewell county and who is now under indictment at Pekin for murder.

PANA, Ill., June 19.—So far as Pana is concerned the coal miners' strike is at an end. At a mass-meeting of the union miners of this city yesterday a committee was appointed to wait upon the operators and submit the scale adopted by the Springfield meeting, which demands that none of the strike leaders be blacklisted and that the union be recognized, and also that the miners be paid 40 cents per gross ton and furnished their supplies. It is hard to predict what may follow, for the operators here declare they will not recognize the committee.

DECATUR, Ill., June 19.—There is no immediate prospect of work being resumed at the three coal mines in Macon county. The operators refuse to accept the conference scale.

LA SALLE, Ill., June 19.—A mass-meeting of the miners of this vicinity, adopted a resolution favoring going to work at the prices agreed upon at Columbus, providing there is a general resumption of work in Ohio and Pennsylvania. The resolution passed by a small margin.

RE UME IN HOCKING VALLEY.

Columbus Schedule Indorsed at a Mass-Meeting—Convention To-day.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, June 19.—With the exception of two places there was a general resumption of work in the Hocking Valley yesterday. Various companies of the Ohio National Guard are homeward bound under gubernatorial orders.

The state convention called by President A. A. Adams of the Ohio district Ohio Mine Workers of America will be held in this city to-day. In view of the rapid change of sentiment going on in favor of accepting the compromise scale, the outlook for the convention being a success is not bright, as the action of the miners in the Hocking Valley and elsewhere annuls its importance.

ALLIANCE, Ohio, June 19.—Contrary to expectations work was not resumed at Salineville yesterday. The 500 miners decided at the last moment to continue the fight for the present. A delegate was elected to the convention to be held at Columbus to-day. Whether or not the strike shall be continued depends largely upon the result of the convention. Should it be decided to call off the strike the miners will in all probability go to work Wednesday, otherwise they will keep up the fight. The men and their families are being well cared for, citizens and farmers alike contributing to their support.

MASSILLON, Ohio, June 19.—Three hundred Massillon district miners met and passed resolutions indorsing the action of delegates at the Columbus convention in signing the agreement and denouncing the Tuscarawas operators for not fulfilling their contract with the national officers.

JACKSON, Ohio, June 19.—None of the Jackson miners have gone to work, but the probability is that the 4,000 miners in this district will surrender. They were much chagrined that the scale was established at 60 cents instead of 70. They recognize it is folly, however, to remain out and break up the organization.

STRIKERS SHOT BY SOLDIERS.

Wounded in a Skirmish with the Militia at Beach City, Ohio.

MASSILLON, Ohio, June 19.—An attempt was made last night by strikers or their sympathizers to shoot Corporal Sherman of Company K, which is located near Beach City, a few miles south of this place. The corporal was struck by a bullet fired by strikers or their friends, but luckily it hit a brass button on his coat and flattened out w. out injury. A number of soldiers chased the men and fired volley after volley, but the strikers escaped in the darkness.

Soldiers later found a man in hiding near the camp who had just had an arm amputated. Later the man was identified as one of the party who had been firing at members of company K for several nights past. A second man who had been shot in the head was discovered and it is supposed that he received his wound in the volley fired last night. There is much hard feeling felt against the soldiers and further trouble seems probable.

STUBENVILLE, Ohio, June 19.—Sheriff McCoy has left for Dillonvale and Hamilton, on the Wheeling & Lake Erie, with a posse of railroad men to act as deputies, going on a special train. The Wheeling & Lake Erie is trying to start its mines there and a riot is in progress. Supt. Wilson asked for assistance from the sheriff. Bloodshed is looked for, as the miners are desperate.

THREATS OF BIG RIOT.

Ohio Miners Repudiate Columbus Agreement and Are Defiant.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, June 19.—Reports received from points along the Cleveland, Lorain & Wheeling road show that work has been resumed at only two mines on the entire length of the road. These mines were at Rock Hill. In the Massillon district not a man went to work, the miners having decided in mass meeting not to abide by the Columbus agreement. They will hold out for a 15-cent differential over the rate paid in the Hocking district. The militia companies continue to guard all bridges and trestles along the Cleveland, Lorain & Wheeling In conversation with miners at Camp Blee they stated that as long as the differential was withheld not a pick would be raised and that if non-union men were chosen in their stead there would be the biggest riot in the history of the country and that the militia would be unable to suppress it. The miners in the New Lisbon district returned to work on the basis adopted by the Columbus conference.

Pittsburg District Mines to Open.

PITTSBURG, Pa., June 19.—There was no general resumption of mining operations in the Pittsburg district yesterday, although at most of the railroad mines and at many of the river mines the diggers have taken their tools to the pits and are making preparations to start. There are many minor disputes to be settled and it will be several days before the collieries are all running.

PRESIDENT IS BACK FROM GRAY GABLES

VISIT TO THE COAST HAS BEN EFITTED HIM.

Twelfth Week of Debate in the Senate—Duty on Wool Pulp the Main Subject of Discussion—Mr. Frye, of Maine, Makes an Appeal for a Specific Tariff.

WASHINGTON, June 19—President Cleveland returned this morning much benefited in health. His stay at Gray Gables has left him ruddy and strong.

WASHINGTON, June 19.—After some routine morning business the senate yesterday entered the twelfth week of the tariff debate. At the request of Mr. Platt the two paragraphs 298 and 299 of the silk schedule, passed over Saturday, were again passed over today and schedule M—"pulp, papers and books"—was taken up. Mr. Frye offered a protest against the first paragraph of the schedule placing a duty of 10 per cent on mechanically ground wood pulp and chemical wood pulp, bleached or unbleached. The production of wood pulp, said Mr. Frye, was an enormous industry employing 70,000 men, turning out a product valued at $35,000,000 annually and paying an annual wage of $23,000,000. Under the operation of the present duty the cost of paper had greatly decreased. Wood pulp had decreased in price from 4½ cents per pound to 1¼ cents in the last ten years. It was produced in twenty-nine states, but principally in Maine and New York. He appealed to the other side to make the duty specific instead of ad valorem and proposed an amendment to substitute equivalent specific rates, say $2.50 per ton on wood pulp mechanically ground, chemical wood pulp, unbleached, $5 per ton, and bleached $6.50 per ton.

The democratic members of the finance committee refused to accept the amendment and it was rejected, 30-28.

The rate on sheathing paper and felt roofing was fixed at 10 per cent; on printing paper, unsized, sized, suitable for book and newspapers, at 15 per cent (an increase from the house rate on unsized paper from 12 to 15 per cent), on copying paper, filtering paper, tissue paper, sensitized paper, etc., 50 per cent., (an increase of 5 per cent from the house rates); parchment papers, card-boards, photograph and autograph albums, wholly or partly manufactured, 30 per cent; lithographic prints 27 per cent; lithographic labels, 45 per cent (house rate 35 per cent) paper envelops, 20 per cent; paper hangings, 20 per cent; blank books, 20 per cent; books, including pamphlets and engraving, photographs and etchings, 25 per cent; playing cards, 10 cents per pack and 50 per cent advalorem; manufactures of paper not specially provided for, 20 per cent.

Senator Hill moved to place coal on the free list, and made a speech in support free coal and the redemption of democratic pledges.

Mr. Peffer followed Mr. Hill in support of free coal, although on a different line.

Mr. Vest said he "understood Mr. Hill was opposed to this bill on account of its income tax feature." Mr. Hill's purpose, the speaker thought, was to elicit some statement he could use in fighting the bill. Mr. Vest declared that he would not hesitate to antagonize the commands of his party on a question like this. If the platform demanded free coal and he could get only a reduction of 35 cents he would take it.

Mr. Chandler expressed the opinion that coal would be on the free list before the bill became a law. There was, he declared, some understanding with somebody.

Mr. Hill declared he was opposed to certain features of the bill, the socialist and populistic income tax in particular, but no one, he declared, had a right to say he was opposed to the bill and was seeking to compass its defeat.

Mr. Faulkner (dem., W. Va.) contended the democratic platform had been for freer raw material and not for free raw material, and had been correctly interpreted by Mr. Cleveland in his letter of acceptance.

Mr. Squire, on behalf of the Washington coal interest, thought it was unfair to admit Canadian coal at 40 per cent when Canada charges 60 per cent on coal imports.

Mr. Perkins explained he should refrain from voting on this paragraph because he had a personal interest in coal mines on the Pacific coast.

A vote was taken on Mr. Hill's amendment at 3:10 and it was lost—7 to 51—Messrs. Allen, Kyle, Peffer, populists, Hill and Irby, democrats, and Hansbrough and Washburn, republicans, voting in favor of the motion.

The Finance committee's amendment placing a duty of 40 cents on bituminous coal and shale and 15 cents on coal or culm that will pass through a half inch screen was agreed to.

Mr. Hill then moved to place coke on the free list. The finance committee amendment made it dutiable at 15 per cent. Hill's motion was defeated, 4 to 46, and the committee amendement was agreed to.

Mr. Vest proposed a series of increases of duties on gloves which were agreed to without objection. The miscellaneous schedule was completed

BIG BOAT STRIKES THE SOUND SHORE.

PLYMOUTH IS AGROUND WITH 600 PASSENGERS.

Steamer City of Madison Hits a Dyke Near Madison, Indiana, and Tears a Big Hole in Her Bow—Several People Badly Hurt in a Runaway at Leadville, Col.

NEWPORT, R. I. June 19.—Steamboat Plymouth of the Fall River line went ashore on the Rose Island today. Her six hundred passengers escaped safely, although very badly frightened. The accident was due to a pilot's misunderstanding of signals.

Several Badly Hurt in Runaway.

LEADVILLE, Colo., June 16.—Mrs. J. R. Miller, wife of a leading merchant, and her two children were thrown down an embankment by a runaway while driving to Evergreen lakes. Mrs. Miller was very seriously cut and bruised about the head and it is feared fatally injured internally. Her little boy had his skull fractured in two places and was cut and bruised all over his body. Her little girl, Ollie, aged 5 years, was caught between the wheel and box of the carriage and her throat horribly torn. She can not recover.

Five Men are Injured in a Wreck.

STILLMAN VALLEY, Ill., June 19.—Five men were severely injured and nine valuable race horses killed in a wreck late last night on the Chicago Great Western near here. There were sixteen horses in one of the cars which were wrecked. They were owned by a Mr. Rawley, and were being shipped to Chicago and St. Paul. The men injured were grooms and jockeys.

Struck the Dyke.

MADISON, Ind., June 19.—The steamer City of Madison struck the dyke amidships in front of this city and tore a hole seventy-five feet long in her hull. She had on board about seventy-five wheelmen returning from Evansville. All are safe. It is thought the boat may be raised.

THE QUESTION OF LABOR.

House Committee Finds a Difficult Problem to Solve.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—An effort to compile statistics regarding convict labor in the United States has been instituted by the house committee on labor, as a preliminary to drawing a bill to prevent competition between prison-made goods and the products of free labor. No accurate information upon this subject, so far as the United States is concerned, is to be found later than a report of the commissioner of labor made in 1886. Great changes have taken place in eight years, so that the figures of 1886 can not be relied upon as applying to the present situation. By convict labor goods can be manufactured so much cheaper than under other circumstances that it is said convict-made goods drive the goods of free labor out of the field and throw working men out of employment when put on the market in competition. A notable instance of this has been furnished by the mat-making trade. The president of the Brooklyn mat-makers' union, who recently addressed committee on the subject, pointed out that the door-mats used in the capitol were made in a Pennsylvania penitentiary.

OPTION BILL UNDER DEBATE.

Mr. Hatch Secures Its Consideration by a Large Majority.

WASHINGTON, June 19.—A letter from the speaker was read in the house announcing that on account of sickness he would be unable to attend the session and appointing Mr. Bailey of Texas speaker pro tem. The deficiency bill was reported by Mr. Breckinridge of Kentucky. Mr. Sayers of Texas will have control of the bill on the floor of the house. The deficiency bill carries an appropriation of $4,890,395.

By a vote of 132 to 21 the house went into committee of the whole to consider the anti-option bill. Mr. Hatch opened the debate with a speech in favor of the bill.

Mr. Warner (dem., N. Y.) delivered a vigorous speech against the bill. He maintained that its passage would injure the export trade of the country, which was largely carried on by a system of dealing in options.

Mr. Bryan (dem., Neb.) spoke for the bill. When Mr. Bryan concluded his speech the house adjourned.

WILL INVITE GLADSTONE.

Prominent Americans Preparing an Invitation to the Liberal Leader.

NEW YORK, June 19 —A project to invite England's ex-premier, W. E. Gladstone, to visit America has been on foot for some time. The idea is to have the invitation signed by a large number of representative men in the country. Judge Addison Brown is among the prime movers.

Chauncey M. Depew, who has been selected to mail the invitation to the ex-premier, said, when a reporter saw him, that no details for Mr Gladstone's entertainment upon arrival had been considered. If he should come this reception would perhaps equal Lafayette's and Kossuth's. Among the signers to the invitation are Charles Stewart Smith, Seth Low, Thomas A. Edison, President McCosh of Princeton, President Dwight of Yale and President Eliot of Harvard.

NEWS FROM THE OLD WORLD.

Spaniards Fail To Collect Morocco Indemnity—New Sultan To Be Backed.

TANGIER, June 19.—The Spanish warship which was sent with a treasury official to Mazagan, in order to receive the first installment of the war indemnity which Morocco agreed to pay to Spain as a result of the rising of the Riffs and the attacks upon the Spanish troops at Melilla, has returned, having been unable to obtain any of the money promised. The indemnity which Spain agreed to accept from Morocco was $4,000,000 or 22,000,000 pesetas.

PARIS, June 19.—Lord Dufferin, the British ambassador, and M. Hanotaux, minister of foreign affairs, met in the foreign office yesterday to draft the form of an identical note to the powers that have agreed to recognize Abdul Aziz as Sultan of Morocco.

SERIOUS FLOODS IN HUNGARY.

Valley of the Waar Submerged and Heavy Damage Is Done.

VIENNA, June 19.—Reports from Galicia and Silesia show that the Waar Valley in Hungary from Trencin north to Pressburg, has been badly inundated. Portions of the towns and dozens of prosperous villages in the valley are submerged. Railway traffic is suspended. Bridges have been swept away and crops destroyed in every direction. The damage amounts to many millions of florins. The rivers are full of carcasses of cattle and household property of every description is floating down stream. The rain ceased somewhat to-day, and there is a prospect that the floods will shortly subside.

Several watchmen were drowned in the floods. Many dams have been undermined. Snow has fallen in the districts of Lipreschl and Liptau.

No Cholera at Hamburg.

HAMBURG, June 19.—In reply to the report circulated that cholera had broken out at Hamburg, an official declaration has been issued saying that not only has there been no case of cholera here this year, but not even a suspicious case has been recorded.

MISSOURI RIVER RISING.

Big Muddy Gets Beyond Its Banks in Many Places.

SIOUX CITY, Iowa, June 19.—The Missouri river is rising at the rate of two feet every twenty-four hours, with reports of a heavy rise above the city. The water is now higher than since 1881, when disastrous floods occurred along the river. Snow water from the mountains is the occasion of the rise.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., June 19.—The Missouri river is a foot above the danger line and is still rising. Many farms are inundated and the damage will be heavy. The river has been cutting and is rapidly changing its course in many places.

WABASH, Ind., June 19.—During the severe electric storm Sunday night lightning struck the large standpipe of the Wabash Water company, 100 feet high and 25 feet in diameter. It glanced from the steel plates and struck the residence of Adam Sundheimer, adjoining, seriously shocking Mrs. Sundheimer.

MINONK, Ill., June 19.—During the recent rains and high winds wheat lodged badly and the crop is sure to be lightened thereby.

OMAHA, Neb., June 19.—The river is within a few inches of the danger line at Omaha.

Laugh at the Alleged Conspiracy.

WASHINGTON, June 19.—Every police, secret service and treasury official here regards as a pure fabrication the story published that a grave anarchist conspiracy had been unearthed. De Matters, upon whose statements the article is supposed to be based, is regarded by Chief Hazen of the secret service and by the police detectives as utterly untrustworthy.

Released on His Own Bond.

LAFAYETTE, Ind., June 19.—John Lyons, the well-known wholesale liquor dealer arrested for violating the United States revenue laws, has been released on his own bond for $3,000 to appear at Indianapolis June 21.

Prendergast Trial at Hand.

CHICAGO, June 19.—The Prendergast trial will begin before Judge Payne at 10 o'clock this morning. The work of summoning witnesses is already well under way.

BELOIT'S BIG WEEK IS FAIRLY OPENED

COMMENCEMENT CEREMONIES THIS AFTERNOON.

Two Janesville Graduates Among the Twelve Who Compose the Class—Memorial Instead of Class Day Exercises—Tomorrow Dedication of the Collection of Casts.

BELOIT, June 19—There are but twelve members of the college graduating class this year, five from Wisconsin, five from Illinois and two from Iowa. Among them are M. O. Mouat and E. J. Stevens, of Janesville. This afternoon the Rice extemperaneous speaking in progress, there being five contestants all of the class of '95, the subject given them yesterday was "What Principles Should Govern College (In Relation to Organized Athletics."

To-morrow morning a public memorial service will be held in the chapel in honor of the two students who recently met their death by drowning. At 4 p. m. the dedication of the Fisher collection of Greeks casts, will be held at the chapel, and will take on the character of a reunion of the old settlers of Beloit and vicinity, it being the fiftieth anniversary of the first movements for the foundation of the college in Beloit. In the evening the alumni banquet and president's reception will be held.

Delivered to the Grand Jury.

WASHINGTON, June 19.—President Havemeyer and Treasurer Searles of the sugar trust will have the pleasure of appearing before the grand jury of the District of Columbia to answer to the charge of contempt of the senate of the United States. The committee decided on this yesterday. Senators Camden, Cameron, Gorman and Washburn were among those who appeared yesterday before the senate committee investigating the sugar trust. The senators denied that they had speculated in or owned any sugar stock during the pendency of the present tariff bill, etc. Senator Allen put several questions to Senator Gorman about campaign contributions by the trust, but Senator Gorman insisted that he knew of none.

The Tenth Indiana District.

DELPHI, Ind., June 19.—The matter of a congressional nomination in this district has at last been brought to a head. Charles B. Landis, the nominee of the republican convention that convened at Hammond three weeks ago, mailed his letter of acceptance to the committee. A conference of republicans from the Tenth district was held at the Grand Pacific hotel last evening. Each county in the district was represented. After the situation had been discussed at length a call was prepared and signed for the reassembling of the delegates at Hammond July 9 for the purpose of nominating a candidate for congress from the Tenth Indiana district.

Fitzsimmons-Choynski Fight a Draw.

BOSTON, Mass., June 19.—The police saved Choynski from an almost certain knockout last night. In the fifth round had they let "Lanky Bob" get in one more punch it would have been a case of "hic jacet Joe." As it was the match was declared a draw, but no one present in the Boston theater will ever claim that Choynski is a foeman worthy to combat with the long Bob Fitzsimmons. Three thousand men enjoyed the battle, which was hot from the start.

Deny the Gresham Story.

WASHINGTON, June 19. — Messrs. Streeter and Taubeneck, on behalf of the populists, deny there is any intention on the part of that organization to put Gresham to the fore as the populist candidate for the Presidency in 1896. Both gentlemen assert there is good enough timber in their own ranks without seeking a candidate outside.

Sixty-Mile Tramp for Soldiers.

ST. PAUL, June 19.—The Third regiment, United States infantry, has been ordered to march from Fort Schelling to Camp Lake View, near Lake City, a distance of sixty miles. The troops will remain there during the sntire period of the encampment of the National guard, from June 22 to July 24. All the command of the Third infantry is included in the order with the exception of the Indian company, which will remain at the post for a guard. The march will begin Wednesday.

Pacific Roads Are Safe.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 19.—Attorney-General Olney characterizes as sensational and untrue the statement to the effect that he had decided to institute suits against the Union Pacific and Kansas Pacific railroads jointly to recover $151,000,000.

Good Rain Benefits Corn.

MOWEAQUA, Ill., June 19.—Reports from twelve counties in central Illinois show that good rains have fallen within forty-eight hours and proved of untold benefit to the corn crop. Wheat harvest will commence in Shelby county the last of this week.

Dr. Paxton Pays a $10 Fine.

NEW YORK, June 19.—Rev. Dr. John R. Paxton yesterday paid a fine of $10 for neglecting to record the certificate of the marriage of W. C. P. Breckinridge and Mrs. Wing, which he performed in April, 1893.

WANT TO BUY A SITE FOR THE CITY HALL.

ALDERMEN PROPOSE PURCHASING THE JAMES CORNER.

For $13,000 This Could Be Had, and the Issue of Bonds Is Proposed—New Purchasing Committee—Debate Over the Removal of Block Cross Walks.

Alderman Winslow introduced an ordinance last evening for the purchase of lots 1 and 2 in the original plat in the village of Janesville for a city hall site, and issuing bonds in the sum of $13,000 for the same. The ordinance was read by the clerk and referred to the judiciary committee. The proposed site is the lot fronting court house park on Main street, being north of the residence of G. C. McLean. The introduction of this ordinance created quite a flutter but its summary reference cut off all debate.

Aldermen Rich and Winslow of the special committee on dividing the Third ward into two election precincts, reported a resolution making the following division, which was adopted:

"The dividing line of said precincts shall be and is a line commencing on the east bank of Rock river and in the center of South Third street, and extending thence easterly along the center line of said street to the center line of Valentine street and said line extended to the city limits; and that all that part of said ward lying north of said line shall be and constitute the First precinct, and that part lying south of said line the Second precinct."

Purchasing Committee Created.

An order presented by Alderman Baines, amended the rules and created a purchasing committee of three members, "the duties of said committee being to purchase all supplies needed by said city, except such as may be ordered by the council by advertisement and bid, and to report all such purchases to the council, and examine and approve of the bills for the same; and all bills for such supplies shall be approved by said committee before being passed upon by the finance committee. And it shall also be the duty of said purchasing committee to make sales of all property that may be ordered to be sold by the common council and to report such sales to the council and turn over the proceeds thereof to the city treasurer." The mayor appointed Aldermen Smith, Winslow and Sutherland on the committee.

Martin's Paving Bond Approved

The appointment of John W. Hogan as special police until August 26, was confirmed, and the bond of John Martin, for paving Main and River streets, was approved. The bill of the Janesville Water company, for 4-way hydrant at corner of East Milwaukee and Bluff streets, $189.59, was referred to committee on fire and water.

The quarterly report of the chief of the fire department, was on motion of Alderman Child referred back to the fire and water committee with power to act on recommendations.

On motion of Alderman Smith, an electric light was ordered placed at St. Mary's and Milton avenue.

Alderman Winslow, of the park committe, reported an order authorizing the sprinkling of the parks at $75 a year. Adopted.

Alderman Kothman's order directing the water company to lay a water main on South Jackson street, from Oak street to Western avenue was adopted.

Controversy Over Old Paving Blocks

An order, presented by Alderman Winslow, directing the street commissioner to remove the block crosswalks on South Main street, from Milwaukee to South First, created considerable discussion. The mayor objected to adopting such an order, inasmuch as the Third ward fund, against which the expense would be charged, was exhausted. Alderman Rich and Winslow contended that notwithstanding the fund was now exhausted, the removal of the blocks by the street commissioner would save the ward considerable. If the contractor removed the blocks they would belong to him. Alderman Child called attention to the fact that all aldermen voting to incur debt when there were no funds on hand, were liable to pay $50 fine. This was answered by Alderman Winslow that it would be better to pay the fine and save the blocks. The mayor was most emphatic in his objections to the order, but put the question, none voting for or against it and it was thereupon declared lost.

Buy Your Lot and Get a Free Ride.

Next Friday night the great excursion to Columbia will take place via. the Chicago & Northwesten Railway. The special excursion train will leave here at 11 p. m. Friday night, arriving there Saturday morning. A grand time is anticipated. Over 100 people have already agreed to go, and inquiries are coming in thick and fast. It will be one of the largest excursions that ever left Janesville. The object of the excursion is to prove to all that Columbia is one of the most desirable towns in the state in which to locate, and that land in Clark county, Wis., is all that it is claimed to be. All those desiring to go must make arrangements on or before six o'clock Thursday evening in order that suitable traveling accommodations may be secured.

BLIND PUPILS END SCHOOL DAYS

Agnes Trainer of Reedsburg and Edward Weller of Oshkosh Graduate.

Commencement exercises at the school for the blind drew a larger audience than could be well accommodated. The assembly room was crowded and the programme was thoroughly enjoyed. The orchestral selections were more ambiticus than usual and showed thorough training. The choruses were also good. After prayer by John M. Whitehead, there were declamations by Anna Brandt, Thea Lorentson Ludwig Ness, Leo Heck, Clara Brose, Augusta Prebe, Anna Davis and Leo Lange. The graduates, Edward Weller, of Oshkosh, and Agnes Trainer, of Reedsburg, gave thoughtful addresses, the first on "Men of Good Conversation," the latter on "Charles Dickens." An address to the school was delivered by Dr. J. L. Cleary, of Kenosha.

RECTORY CLUB'S MOONLIGHT RIDE

First of the Series Proved Very Enjoyable Last Evening.

Music, moonlight and mirth were blended in a happy whole by the Young People's Rectory club of Trinity church last night. The club and their friends took passage with Captain Buchholz on the Columbia and besides the delight of a lovely ride eight miles up the Rock, there was an additional treat afforded by the concert selections rendered by the Orpheus Mandolin club. On the way back a stop was made at Crystal Springs and there was dancing to the Orpheus club's measures.

JUNCTION CHURCH REFITTED.

Janesville Firm Has Charge of the Frescoing—Address on Mormonism.

MILTON JUNCTION, June 19.—The interior of the S. D. B. church is being repaired. Services were held in the basement last Sabbath. A firm from Janesville have the job frescoing. The west side of the church which was injured by the wind storm several years ago is being newly plastered. Mr. McClafferty remains about the same. He seems at times to be possessed with the idea that he must get up and go, and does, sometimes in spite of the attendants. He even got as far as his store once. Mrs. Henry Monroe is quite sick. Her husband is bedridden. A daughter is taking care of them. There is sickness in the family of Mr. Stone's. Dr. and Mrs. Hull and the new baby visited with Dr. Hull's parents in the town of Johnstown last week. Undertaker Coon was called to the town of Lima Monday by the death of the aged father of Clark Palmer, also the father of Mrs. Stone, mother of Mrs. Ainsley Thorpe. The funeral will be held Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Miner has a lady friend from Chicago visiting her. A good many strawberries spoiled on the vines during Saturday and Sunday. Mrs. I. W. Babcock visited at Herbert Coon's at Janesville Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Pierce returned from Oshkosh on Monday. Little Mamie Coon is sick, with Dr. Ella Crandall, of Milton, in attendance. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, who live on Golden Lane, welcomed a new baby to their home last Wednesday. Ed. Butts, of Delavan, and his brother and brother's son from Evansville, were here Monday. Mrs. Judd, of Edgerton, and Mrs. Poole, of Duluth, with two other ladies were calling in Milton Junction Monday morning. Owing to the rain Sunday night Rev. Summers did not deliver his discourse on Mormonism, but will do so at a favorable opportunity. The ladies of the M. E. church are talking of purchasing a new communion set and other fixtures for the church. If anyone has items of news they would like to have printed in the Gazette with Milton Junction items they can do so by leaving them at the post-office, box 278.

STATE NEWS FOR SUPPER TIME.

MRS. JOHT MANNING may lose her reason from fright. She stumbled upon a large she-wolf with a litter of small ones near Arcadia.

WALWORTH county barley fields were frosted so badly that farmers have plowed them up and planted corn.

A STROKE of paralysis was not fatal to Mrs. Rachel Conklin, eighty-one years of age, at La Fayette.

THE city of Whitewater will issue $10,000 in bonds to purchase the Esterly residence for school purposes.

A YOUNG alligator bit S. H. Hindes, of Lodi, and blood poisoning ensued.

MILTON FIELD DAY WILL BE LIVELY.

GIRLS NOT BARRED FROM THE CONTEST.

Much Tobacco Buried by Saturday's Rain—No Cheese Factory in Magnolia—Rev. E. H. Pence Booked for a Milton Address—Magnolia Plans a School Picnic.

MILTON, June 19.—The program for Field day tomorrow includes bicycle, one mile race; ladies potato race, with spoon; ladies' wheelbarrow race, one hundred yard dash; ladies fifty yard dash; broad jump, back jump, high jump; broad jump with weights; running jump; hop step and jump, putting hammer; ladies putting stone; men putting stone, long throw; ladies long throw; high vault, sack race; two hundred yard race; leap frog; ladies' egg race; barrel race and tug-of-war. There will also be a game of base ball at 1:30 p. m. sharp. Commencement exercises of the public schools this evening at S. D. B. church. You are invited. Howard Plumb was a competitor for a prize, offered by the Golden Rule Publishing Company, of Boston for the best collection of leaf buds. Although the competition was open to the United States, he was awarded the first prize, $5. The best game of base ball played here this season was that between the "Orophilians" and "Blue Diamonds" on Tursday afternoon. The "Oros" won by a score of 12 to 7. The batteries were J. Palmer and J. B. Borden and L. Wood for the winners and Ed. Green. H. Bullis and S. Green for the Diamonds. Masterson Bros. sold their '94 tobacco Thursday at four cents. Prof. R. B. Anderson, of Madison, former United States minister to Denmark, was the guest of Prof. Kumlein, Friday. Mrs. Ida Warner-Rungel, of Missouri, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Burdick. Miss Sadie, Loofborro is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Boss. Public session of the Orphilian Lyceum tomorrow evening in college chapel. Dr. Gertie Crumb of Chicago, is visiting her parents. Mrs. Florence Spencer, of Beloit, spent Saturday with her father, Deacon Estee. Ernest Greene, who has been spending some months at Berkeley, California, returned Friday. Rev. Edward Pence, of Janesville, preaches the annual sermon before the Christian Association of the college, at the Seventh-Day Baptist church, Friday evening at 8 o'clock. Rev. Mr. Barnard, pastor of the Whitewater Congregational church, occupied Elder Dunn's pulpit Saturday morning and presented an able sermon. W. S. Jones has been working a few hands lately in the Soverhill warehouse, repacking and sizing farmers' crops bought by Wiel & Co. Mr. Chantler, who represents the drug house of Peter Van Schaack & Sons, Chicago, was in town Saturday on a bicycle, which he uses much on the road. Public session of the Philomathean society occurs on Saturday evening at college chapel. Miss Lilian Bond of Chicago, has been the guest of Mrs. J. B. Morton and Mrs. J. G. Bond, for several days. L. M. Nelson, one of the leading candidates for sheriff, was in town Saturday. Miss Isabel Garghill of Evanston. Ill., a noted dramatic reader, is the guest of Miss Jennie A. Dunn. Dr. George W. Post came up from Chicago Wednesday and remained with his family until Tuesday. The rains of Friday and Saturday did great good to crops in general, but some fields of winter wheat and grass were badly lodged as a result of the storm. Tobacco setters had been busily at work and the heavy rainfall buried many plants, but despite the damage which the storm did there was much rejoicing over its coming. M. T. Cole attended the Seventh Day Baptist association at Dodge Center, Minn., and enjoyed a visit with relatives. President Whitford delivers the address before the Old Settlers' asssociation at Palmyra tomorrow. Prof. J. N. Humphrey, of Whitewater, spent Sunday in this village. Prof. Kumlein took his zoology class to Lake Koshkonong for an outing Monday. Mr. Rice, of Austin, Minn, who is one of the leading merchants of that city, was here this week securing shipments of straw berries for his trade.

MUSICALE IN LIMA JUNE 22

Entertainment to be Given for a Good Cause—Doing of Village Folk

LIMA, June 19—At Reese & Anderson's hall next Friday evening there will be a musical and literary entertainment. Those who attended the same a few weeks since at the Free Baptist church speak in very high terms of the entertainment. All are invited as the object is a worthy one. Admission ten cents. Clarence Johnson of Milton Junction, was a caller on friends in this place last Saturday. Miss Carrie Johnson goes to Warren, Ill., Tuesday morning, to attend the yearly meeting, which is held there, she being a delegate from the Rock and Dane county quarterly meeting. Edna Fuller returned from Baraboo last Saturday. She was accompanied by her aunt, Miss Nettie Baker. Mrs. Elphic is on the sick list. W. W. Janes, of Madison, Dakota, is visiting here. S. S. Burhans, of Elkhorn, called on friends here last Monday.

Week's Doings In Fairfield.

FAIRFIELD, June 19—Misses May McGregor, of Janesville, and Mary Messenger of Elroy, have been spending the past week with their friend, Miss Bertha Clark. G. U. Lang has returned from his sojourn in the east. There will be a strawberry and ice cream social at the M. E. church on Thursday evening and none should fail to attend, as the young people expect to serve the Reid's ice cream, of Delavan, and this will insure an elegant supper. Price ten cents per dish of either berries or cream. The storms of Friday, Saturday and Sunday were gladly welcomed by the farmers. The wind did considerable damage to trees. There will be an ice cream social at the Bradford Center church next Friday evening.

LAWN SOCIAL IN COOKSVILLE.

One Hundred and Ten Were Made Glad by Congregationalists.

COOKSVILLE, June 19—A lawn social was held at R. Speers last Wednesday. One hundred and ten tickets were sold for ice cream and cake. There was good music and speaking including numbers by Miss Bertha Bell, of Brooklyn, and Mr. Binham, of Richland Center. The receipts of the evening, eleven dollars, go to the Concordia society. Our school closed Friday. Miss Herrick has done her duty by the children for the past nine months and it is hoped she can be secured again. The welcome rain reached here Saturday night and fell almost all day Sunday. Mr. Forests family arrived from Chicago Tuesday and are living in what is known as the Collin's house. Mr. Forest has the frame up for his new blacksmith shop. That makes five blacksmith shops in the town. Soverhill & Porter, of Janesville, were through here last Friday on business. Charlie Woodbury, of Janesville, was on our streets Thursday and Friday. There was a missionary meeting at Mrs. G. E. Newman's Friday afternoon. Very few were out. The new road scraper in this town is run by eight horses, engineered by W. W. Tolles.

GOSPEL TENT AT THE GROVE

Rev. J. O. Buswell Will Conduct a Series of Meetings—Rev. G. M. Hammond Away

EMERALD GROVE, June 19—The gospel tent meetings will begin at this place on Friday evening, June 22. Rev. J. O. Buswell is the evangelist and will be assisted by the Cheney male quartette. Meetings will be held in a large tent with a seating capacity for nearly 500. Everybody come. Rev. G. M. Hammond is absent on business for a few days. We are pleased to note the improved condition of Z. Gilson. School closed in this district for the season with appropriate exercises last Friday. A number of our boys went to Koshkonong last week and caught a fine string of pickerel and bass. Be sure and make arrangements to attend the picnic in Boynton's woods on July 4. Superintendent David Throne has agreed to speak and a good programme is being prepared. About four inches of rain fell Saturday and Sunday, which was enough to satisfy the most exacting. Ravines ran full and pond holes were made lakes. It was a grand rain, and everyone feels good over it. Everything that's green, must grow now. Gillies & Jones have pure Paris green. School meeting July 2, 1894.

SCHOOL PICNIC AT MAGNOLIA

Good Time Is Planned for June 23—No Cheese Factory Started

MAGNOLIA, June 19—There will be a school picnic June 23. Ice cream, lemonade and cake will be served. The Cainville and Magnolia schools will unite in making the day agreeable for all who attend. John Horan's baby is quite sick. Dr. Lacy is attending it. Lila Jameson is on the sick list. The rain of Saturday and Monday was a welcome visitor to our parched earth. Crops look more hopeful now. The meeting of farmers at Brown's hall Saturday evening to see about starting a cheese factory here did not accomplish anything. Mr. and Mrs. B. Johnson and Mr. and Miss Hendrickson have been visiting here, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Howard. A full house greeted Rev. Orrin Jenks. His sermon was a good one, and all felt well paid who listened to him. Rev. Mr. Hatch will fill his appointment Monday morning at the Advent church. All agree in giving the prize to the Lemen circus for taking money out of people these Coxey times. They will get rich soon.

Tobacco Setting at Clear Lake.

CLEAR LAKE, June 19—People are busy now, filling their tobacco ground and setting tobacco. Some have finished, while others are just beginning. Mrs. A. L. Rose does not seem to improve much. Three gentlemen from Chicago spent Sunday at Tillman Park returning Monday. A four horse 'bus-load of merry people spent Sunday on the north side of the lake. Quite a good many are trying their luck at fishing. The Blind Pig is running and the steamboat is also ready for use, making its first trip Saturday.

Notes From North Johnstown.

NORTH JOHNSTOWN, June 19.—The ice cream social at the church last Tuesday evening, was well patronized and was a success financially to the Aid society. Mr. Janes and Mr. Reed, of Lima, were at C. B. Palmer's last week working for Mr. Palmer. There will be no services at the Free Baptist church next Sunday, as the pastor will be away, attending the yearly meeting which convenes with the Warren, Ill., church.

Free Excursion.

The Columbia Improvement Company, of Janesville, Wis., will give their free excursion June 22. A free ride and a free lot. Call on them or write for particulars.

CLIFFORD MAY GO BACK TO WAUPUN.

PARDONED MURDERER STARTS A MILWAUKEE SALOON.

Drinking and Gambling Led to the Crime for Which He Was Sentenced, and When He Was Released, He Promised Governor Peck To Reform.

Three years ago Governor Peck pardoned Hartley Clifford, who was given a life sentence by Judge Bennett for the murder of Captain Pugh in Racine in 1882. Clifford had been a gambler and a drunkard, and when the governor pardoned him he imposed a condition to the effect that he should forsake those paths of evil. Now Clifford, in company with another man, is about to open a saloon near the Soldiers' Home in Milwaukee and residents who are opposed to it will ask the governor if Clifford has not violated the conditions of his pardon by opening a saloon.

Those Little Sieves,

The kidneys, separate from the blood, as it passes through them, impurities for which the final medium of liberation from the system is the bladder. When their function is suspended, direful results ensue. Among these are dropsy, Bright's disease, diabates and maladies which terminate in some one of these. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters stimulates the kidneys not as an unmedicated alcoholic stimulant would by exciting them, but by gently impelling them to renewed action and perpetuating their activity and vigor. Thus the blood is once more insured purification and the organs themselves saved from destruction. Malaria, constipation, liver complaint, nervousness, dyspepsia and rheumatism are all thoroughly remedied by the Bitters, which is, moreover, a most thorough appetizer, general tonic and sleep promoter. Use it regularly, but semi-occasionally.

Renting Congregational Pews.

An adjourned meeting of the Congregational church and society will be held in the church Wednesday at 7:30 p. m., at which time the pews will be rented for the coming year. The attendance of all members of the church or society is requested.

SIMPLE, NEAT, REFINED.

These Are Words to Remember In Dressing the Home's Infant Ruler.

The scarfs, tray cloths and other small articles of decorative table linen that have so long been embroidered with red are now to have the design worked in one, two or three shades of yellow. Pretty round doilies are shown made of fine white linen and edged with point de venise. Just inside the edge of the linen a small pattern is embroidered with gold colored wash silk. These doilies would go well with the gold and cream damask luncheon cloths and napkins now sold, which are as brilliant and soft as silk. There is really nothing quite as dainty for the table as pure white linen, however, hemmed rather than fringed, and by all means hemmed by hand. Machine hemming on table and bed linen is an incongruity which should never be tolerated.

Reverting to the subject of tinted house linen, it is a good plan to buy towels that have not a colored border, for in the washing and boiling that towels so frequently pass through the color is sure to fade more or less, even if it be red, which is most lasting, and an appearance of age and shabbiness is thus produced long before the linen is really worn out.

The latest thing in fancy work is the embroidering of small squares of coarse ecru bolting cloth with japanese silks in persian patterns, the squares to be turned to account in making cushion covers, lambrequins and other decorative articles. Joined by wide bands of dull blue ribbon, they would make a very pretty baby carriage robe, although nothing can equal for that purpose a white cashmere goatskin, which is light, warm and appropriately infantile looking. Excessive elaboration is out of place in a child's appurtenances. The more exquisitely simple and neat they are the more refined will they appear. That is why a baby's toilet articles should be of china and ivory rather than of silver and its lawn gowns hemstitched and tucked instead of richly embroidered.

A sketch is given of a brushholder of heavy olive cloth. The pockets are laid in plaits on each side at the bottom to allow sufficient room for the brushes. The top of the back piece and the face of the pockets are embroidered in geometrical patterns in colored silks and gold cord, and the edges are pinked.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

BEAUTY AND KNOWLEDGE.

Judic Chollet Thinks a Woman May Be Both Pretty and Truly "Advanced."

Now that the chief questions in regard to the higher education of women have been settled there are several minor points which, trifling as they may seem to be, are yet worthy of consideration, and one of these is this: Is intellectual development materially assisted by the sacrifice of personal attractions, or, if they are too marked to be entirely concealed, by showing them to as great a disadvantage as possible? Unless an ascetic style of dress is of real physical assistance to the brain, like plenty of sleep and wholesome food, there seems to be no reason why a course in the higher mathematics should involve a renunciation of ruffles or why a firm grasp of social science cannot be secured while the hair is becomingly arranged. Yet some of our cleverest women proceed on the assumption that beauty and knowledge, like youth and crabbed age, cannot live together, and since these women are so intellectual and have studied so much they must have some unanswerable argument to support the theory, although they have not taken the trouble to advance it.

JET BONNET.

A seeming inconsistence lies in the fact that the same women admire without a qualm of conscience beauty in a work of art, a plant or a landscape. They will take pains to hang a picture in the best light, place a flower in a vase which sets off its loveliness and direct their friends' attention to some particularly picturesque phase of a familiar view. Why is not personal beauty to be equally appreciated?

This sort of self immolation on the altar of science has been a grievance with the laity, especially men, for many years, and no doubt is an influence, although possibly a small one, toward the continuance of that illogical prejudice against the cultivation of a girl's intellect which clings so tenaciously to existence. We like to see pretty people even if they are stupid. If we must take our choice between the pretty and the clever ones and care not to have them combined in one class of individuals, we will almost always choose the pretty ones, if you please. The intellectual woman who sacrifices her hair will feel no interest in the bonnet of which a sketch is given, for it is a flippant arrangement suited to surmount only waves and curls. It consists of a small jet crown trimmed with beaded velvet made into bows, ends and rosettes. The front is ornamented with three black ostrich plumes. There are no strings.

GIVE MADISON A CHANCE

Isn't it about time the rest of the state united and forced upon Madison the nominations that rightly belong to her?

Something of this kind must be done or the modesty of the Capitol City will prevail and only three or four places will fall to her lot.

Such a state of affairs would be a reproach to republicanism. If Madison men who have admitted many times that they are the life and soul of the republican party, refuse to voice their own claims others must do it for them. The Gazette submits this ticket as fairly embodying Madison sentiment and trusts it will receive due consideration:

For United States Senator—R. M. La Follette, of Madison.

For Governor—H. A. Taylor, of Madison.

For Lieutenant Governor—Samuel B Harper, of Madison.

For Secretary of State—C. E. Bross, of Madison.

For State Treasurer—W. S. Main, of Madison.

For Attorney General—H. B. Chynoweth, of Madison.

For Railroad Commissioner—E. W. Keyes, of Madison.

For Insurance Commissioner—Harry Hobbins, of Madison.

There will be modest disclaimers from Madison—coy dallyings that should not be encouraged by the people of the state. Wisconsin republicans have a duty to perform. They owe it to themselves to see that the men who have been the life of the party for years—who have served it early and late without thought of reward—receive some slight mark of appreciation.

It seems to the Madison Journal that in its campaign fund contributions the sugar trust was actuated by the same patriotic disinterestedness which characterized Mr. Van Alen's financial aid to Mr. Cleveland's candidacy.

Colonel John H. Knight goes out of the state to make a denial that does not deny about stolen pine lands. Knight and Vilas have robbed the state so long and so brazenly that the general declaration "I don't know anything about it," satisfies very few.

No better site for a city hall could be desired than the S. L. James corner. There is room for doubt, however, whether bonds should be issued until the $55,000 required for the high school has been provided.

PITH OF STATE POLITICAL NEWS.

HAUGEN will have the Tenth district behind him in the gubernatorial race.

THE Waterloo Journal thinks the republican party of the state can find no better standard bearer than Mr. Caswell.

THE Menominee News refers to General Michael Griffin, of Eau Claire, as "The best man yet mentioned for the nomination for governor."

THE La Crosse Chronicle thinks D. J. McKenzie's lively canvass for treasurer is a dangerous element to Colonel Copeland's candidacy for lieutenant governor.

ACCORDING to the Oshkosh Northwestern "When Boss Wall is gone and Senator Vilas is away, there isn't enough head left to keep the tail very lively. Now that the boss is home something of an interesting wiggle may be looked for."

THE Prairie du Chien Courier (dem) is responsible for this bit of irony: "There is no use denying the fact, even the most aspiring men of our party will not think of trying titles with the present state officers, should they desire a re-election

"UNCLE" Hod's State Journal thinks "The ease with which Mr. Cleghorn was nominated for governor by the prohibitionists ought to prompt a few gentlemen with courage to announce themselves as candidates before the republican convention."

THE Hudson Star and Times says Charles Lewiston, of Hudson, entered the contest for nomination for state treasurer largely through encouragement held out to him by Mr. Haugen. It, therefore, concludes St. Croix county will stand by Mr. Lewiston, notwithstanding Haugen's candidacy.

THE Rice Lake Chronotype is confident that "had Superior gone democratic at its last municipal election, the city would not have not lost the normal school." It concludes thus: "Our state affairs are now administered by a lot of small fry politicians whose ideas are governed and controlled by party advantage and prejudice."

STATE CONVENTION TO BE HELD HERE.

Three Hundred Young Men Will Attend—October 18-21 Is the Date—Beloit Ball Players Downed by the Janesville Team—Other Bits of News.

JANESVILLE gets the annual convention of the Wisconsin Young Men's Christian Association. Madison made a strong bid but the Janesville invitation was accepted. The date is October 18 to 21, and fully three hundred young men will be in the city. Secretary Kline has just received formal notice of this city's selection.

MEMBERS of the Janesville Y. M. C. A. nine who defeated the Beloit aggregation were: Tom Sullivan, pitcher; Hugh Glennon, catcher; John McVicar, first base; Walter Johnson, second base; H. Baldwin, third base; J. C. Kline, short stop; Charles Hanson, left field; W. Taylor, center field, and M. Smith, right field. The Beloit nine had half the college players in the ranks, but Janesville won by a score of 14 to 13, only one man being out in their half of the ninth inning.

FLYERS ARE GOING ON A GOOD TRACK

JUNE MEETING OPENS VERY AUSPICIOUSLY.

Fast Time Is Promised by the Quality of the Horses and the Condition of the Course—Luna a Favorite in the 2:17 Class Trotting—Other Notes of Interest.

Esperanza, piloted by H. D. McKinney won the 2:27 trot in straight heats today. Jessie Bell won in the 2:50 class.

Under a warm sun Janesvill's June race meetings opened this afternoon.

The gods of racing smiled on the association.

Th day was perfect.

Saturday and Sunday's rain had left the track in fine condition; only a few darker colored spots showed where the water had stood and they were fast bleaching under the summer's sun. The footing was good from pole to outside all the way 'round. At 1:30 the bell in the judge's stand warned the drivers in the 2:50 class that they must be getting out, and soon they were scoring up the track. Behind a well-knit bay mare sat a driver that had guided many a horse to victory in days gone by. In the veins of this mare coursed the gamey blood of Jay Bird and Young Jim. Sister Ethel was her name and M. E. McHenry was her driver. She was the favorite in the pools last night. The other horses on the entry list were: Jenny Belle, May Ross, Sister Ethel, Judge Walker. Minney Wilkes, Ollie K., Clara G., Oh Se, Smithsonian, Barolite, Bell Wilkes, Flora Milo, Helen, Anthony, Alice Phallamont

Judge Walker, Flora Milo and Alice Phallamont did not have their names on the card and the actual starters were Helen, who had the pole, Minnie Wilkes in second place, Sister Ethel third, Oh So fifth, Jersey Belle sixth, Ollie K. seventh, Belle Wilkes eighth and Anthony in ninth place. When they came out for the word Helen did not start and they all moved up a position. Sister Ethel started out to win after a rather bad start for her and nearly caught the leader. Jessie Bell went on the back stretch. She broke but McHenry got her down and got first place in 27¾.

Luna Phallamont the Favorite.

When the 2:27 trotters came out the horsemen turned their eye toward the speedy daughter of Phallamont: George M. McKey's Luna. She had sold favorite at $10 for choice in the pools last night and many people expected her to win. She had been in use as a driving horse on the streets of Janesville all summer. Her competitors were: J. W. O., Eldredge, Dr. Cronin, Phallamont Swigert, Luna, Esperanza, Nancy Wilson, Ranger H, Marco Polo, Chicago Belle, Michigan Prince, Lausan, Gen. Doe.

When the 2:27 horses came out Esperanza had the pole; Eldredge second; Luna third; Ranger H. fourth; Chicago Belle fifth; Dr. Cronin sixth the others being drawn. Luna struck out for the lead and at the quarter pole had a good lead but on the back stretch she left her feet and before Burns could get her down she was too far behind. Esperanza with H. D. McKinney in the sulky finished first but a neck ahead of Eldredge in 27¼.

ETHEL A. IS EXPECTED TO GO FAST.

Horse That is Here Will Meet John Kelly's Crack.

The three-year-old pacer that beats Ethel A., who will go in the pacing class for that age here Friday, will have to be winged by the wind. Ethel A. is a daughter of Adrian Wilkes, the Iowa sire whose get appear to have any amount of speed at the pace, and she won a four-heat race at Freeport, Ill., June 13, in 2:19, 2:20¼, and 2:20½. She is owned by John Conley, Iowa Falls, Iowa, and is out of the great brood mare Mollie Jackson, dam of Idolf, trotting record 2:13¾, and Fidol, dacing record 2:10¼.

At Chicago she will meet John Kelly's pet three year old, Carbonate, and Don D. Donnan, of the Chicago Inter Ocean speculates. Carbonate, he says, won a heat at Denver in 2:19¾, but was unsteady and lost the race in slower time. He is owned by Du Boise Bros. and will have the advantage of John Kelly's skill and judgment, so that when he comes to his Chicago race he will probably be fit to go to the event up to his best capabilities. Carbonate is sired by Superior, 2:17¼, and his dam is Maggie H. 2:28¼, the dam also of Buelah, 2:14¼ at 3 years. If one of this pair does not carry the bulk of the money at Washington Park, it will be because there is something else among the twenty-three entries that can beat 2:15 on the day of the race.

DUST FROM THE TRACK.

REV. FATHER R. J. ROCHE was one of the spectators.

DR. JAMES LORD and T. B. Earle were down from Edgerton.

PEILO SWEET is handling H. J. Killilea's Harry Brown, who is entered in the '20 pacing class to-morrow. The pacers record is 2:24¼, and the other day he was given a mile in 2:19¼.

CLARENCE WEEKS has Gladys Sprague in the 2:24 class Thursday, and the Badger Sprague mare is stepping along lively. She has shown a mile in 2:21¾, the last quarter was trotted in 30¼, or at a 2:02 clip.

"'Taint no use talkin" said a Josiah Allen at the race track this afternoon "That race was a tarnation good one. There warn't no funny business 'bout it, 'cause I heard the starter tell 'em to 'go' when they started."

EDWIN FIFIELD sold tickets at the driveway gate while Martin Eustis and Alfred Dewey gathered them in. At the street car gate Walter Fifield sold pasteboards and H. B. Kenniston and S. B. Kenyon guarded the gate.

THE horsemen are keeping an eye on Kate F., who will go in the free-for-all Friday. Kate won a heat in the same class from Phoebe Wilkes, who finally won the purse at Freeport, in 2:16¼. The Wilkes mare has not been entered here and Kate took second money over the others rather handily, the heat she won being the fastest in the race.

STILL LIKE TO BE HUMBUGGED

Janesville Proves the Truth of What Barnum Said About Americans.

Away back in the early history of the growth of this country, Barnum discovered that the average American delighted to be humbugged, and so he got up a wooly horse for his big show. It will be remembered that Barnum actually wrote in his book that humbuggery was what delighted Americans. Yes, and they still delight in it. Let a Cheap John affair come to town and the people will flock after it and crowd themselves nearly to death to be humbugged. This fact is daily realized in Janesville. Shoddy goods—no, not goods—stuff is sold at high prices. People buy the stuff—a suit for instance—that is warranted to fit, not to fade, etc., and almost before the trial can be had the seller is off in Waterloo or Syene. O, the humbuggery that is daily practiced on our people. And here we are in the nineteenth century, and after the great world's fair. When will people have sense enough to trust to well established merchants? Will it ever come?

Free Lecture to Mothers and Daughters.

Mrs. Marion Hunt will lecture at All Souls church June 20th at 3 o'clock p. m. Subject: "Woman—Past, Present, and Future." The lecture is not in the interests of woman's suffrage, but treats of the higher, holier duties of women. Illustrations will be used teaching women how to guard her own and her daughter's health, to preserve and increase beauty. Young ladies especially invited. A large attendance is expected. Come early and bring your friends.

Concordia Picnic.

The Concordia Society will give a grand picnic at Crystal Park next Sunday. Smith's orchestra will furnish the music; there will be chorus singing, games of various kinds, and a shoot for a red, white and blue sheep. Arrangements have been made for both the Columbia and Enterprise to run every half hour. A good time is anticipated and everybody invited.

ARC LIGHTS TO BEAM ON JULY FOURTH

AMPLE STREET ILLUMIMATION THAT NIGHT.

Captain Norcross Says He Thinks the System Will Be Ready for Operation at That Time—Men Are Rushing the Work as Fast as Possible.

Part of Janesville's Fourth of July illumination will be by electric lights. At least this is what Captain Norcross now promises the people of the city.

"My men are closing up the work of stringing the wire," said the captain this afternoon. "All our dynamos are in position. The lamps and all the material has arrived, and so far as I can see we will be ready to turn on the current by the first of July. We will have one side of the river illuminated on the Fourth anyway, and I hope to have all done by that time. We are working hard to accomplish this."

Captain Norcross is using every care to construct his line in a safe and desirable manner, and is endeavoring to fully comply with the requirments of the wire ordinance.

IRISH PICNIC PACKED THE BOATS

Appreciative Crowd Hears Speeches and Sees Games at Crystal Springs.

The Ancient Order of Hibernians are enjoying themselves in the woods up at Crystal Springs. The Bower City band is furnishing music and made a street parade at one o'clock, passing through the business streets and to the steamboat landing at Fourth avenue, where they embarked for the pleasure grounds. This afternoon there were addresses by Rev. M. O. Sullivan of Chicago and Judge M. V. Gannon, of Omaha. Games, races and Irish dances will occupy the remainder of the day.

Benjamin F. Palmer.

Benjamin F. Palmer, father of C. B. Palmer, of Lima, died at his son's home Monday morning. Mr Palmer settled in the town of Lima in 1840, and lived on the same farm until 1876, when he became a resident of Whitewater for fifteen years, and then returned to live with his son.

Inspection of Co. A.

The annual inspection of the Light Infantry will be held at the armory of the company, Wednesday evening, June 20. Lieutenant Buck, of the 13th United States Infantry will be inspecting officer. All the ex-militia men of the city are cordially invited to attend with their ladies.

16. Consisting of two members to act with the chairman of the county board, for the purpose of approving the bonds of all newly elected or appointed county officers: Simon Smith, Rush Beardsley.

Supervisor H. A. Egerton presented the following resolution and moved its adoption.

Resolved by the county board of supervisors of Rock county.

That a special committee consisting of K. Killam and S. Smith be appointed to confer with the state board of equalization in regard to getting a reduction in the state equalization for Rock county, and that said committee continue in force until the meeting of the county board in 1895.

Adopted.

Supervisor More from committee on county poor farm reported as follows and moved its adoption.

To the Hon. the Board of Supervisors of Rock County:

Gentlemen:—The committee to whom was referred the matter of leasing or selling the county poor farm at Johnstown would respectfully report as follows:

On the 16th day of March the committee and the county clerk met at the county house on said farm and entered into a contract with, and did lease to one, T. C. Sheridan for the present season the plow land of said farm on shares as per terms of contract on file in the office of the county clerk reserving the meadow and pasture for the use of the county.

The committee also met at the county house on the 5th day of April, at which meeting the county clerk was absent, and did enter into a contract with, and did sell to D. McFarlane the aforesaid farm for eleven thousand ($11000) dollars, making certain resevations of Boilers &c as per contract on file in the office of the county clerk, Mr. McFarlane requiring an abstract of title on the afore said sale

The county clerk ordered one made by the register of deeds, the cost of which is $11 and 50-100 dollars. Mr. McFarlane being unable to raise the money as agreed upon the sale was not completed and the farm is still unsold. Two or three other offers were made, but your committee did not deem it advisable to accept any of them, as they were below the eleven thousand dollar mark.

Your committee are of the opinion that the farm will sell for as much after the present crop is harvested as it could be sold for now. Buyers somehow have the idea that the county is bound to sell no matter what the price. To day we have received a bid from William Sheridan, offering ten thousand one hundred dollars ($10100) for said farm after the crop is harvested. This offer being no better than several previous ones, your committee agree in rejecting this bid also.

All of which is respectfully submitted.
W. J. M'INTYRE, County Clerk.
ROBERT MORE,
RUSH BEARDSLEY,
W. A. MAYHEW,
Committee.

Report accepted.

Supervisor Egerton moved that the committee on county poor farm, consisting of Supervisors More, Beardsley and Mayhew, and the county clerk, be continued another year or until the farm is sold.

Carried.

Supervisor Vankirk moved that the board adjourn until 1:30 p. m.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Board met pursuant to adjournment at 1:30 p. m.

Called to order by H. Tarrant, chairman.

Roll call.

Quorum present.

Supervisor Vankirk presented the following resolution and moved its adoption:

Resolved, By the county board of supervisors of Rock county, that the committee appointed at the January meeting of this board for the purpose of adopting a uniform series of text books for Rock county, be continued, and such committee consist of Supervisors Killam, Mayhew and Campbell.

Adopted.

Supervisor Simon Smith from committee No. 10, presented the following report and moved its adoption.

To the board of supervisors of Rock county:

Gentlemen:—Your committee No. 10 to whom was referred the following entitled bills, would respectfully report that they have had the same under consideration, and after a careful examination of all the items contained therein, recommend that the several amounts as set forth in this report be allowed each claimant respectively, to-wit:

HARPER'S HISTORY OF THE WAR

Harper's Pictorial History is universally recognized as the best history of the war yet published. This superb work has never been sold for less than $16 to $30. It has been sold only by subscription and but a very few men have been able to buy it.

The pages are the same size as Harper's Weekly and the work contains all the illustrations appearing in that great paper during the war. The work was edited by Richard Grant White and Henry M. Alden and is authentic, complete and reliable.

We have made arrangements whereby we can furnish Gazette subscribers with this splendid history of twenty-six parts at ten cents a part. These twenty-six parts will contain over one thousand war pictures and will make two handsome volumes when bound

Many official documents of priceless historic value are quoted in full in the copious foot notes, such for instance as Lincoln's inauguration speeches, articles of federation of the early states, constitution of the United States, ordinance of secession, and many important papers, speeches, etc. The war story is consecutive and very fascinating. The introductory chapters, leading up to the struggle, and the chapter on the reconstruction period, are by some of the first writers of the age.

That oily and rough skin cured and the face and hands beautified by Johnson's Oriental soap; medicated and highly perfumed. Sold at Smith's Pharmacy.

WOOL! WOOL!

From force of habit we are compelled to abondon all idea of reformation and will continue the pernicious habit of giving money worth 100 cents for wool, protected or free, and will make Janesville as good a market as any west of the lake. Warehouse corner Wall and Madison.

SAVE DOCTOR'S BILLS

by paying attention to properly regulating the bowels thereby preventing a thousand and one derangements of the system which follow neglect of this precaution. Once used for this purpose, Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are always in favor. They're purely vegetable and far better, as a liver pill, than blue pills or calomel. Their secondary effect is to keep the bowels open and regular—not to constipate.

MISS MARY ANGUISH, of Glen Easton, Marshall Co., W. Va., writes: "Two years ago I was pale and emaciated, food fermented in my stomach. A physician pronounced my case 'Catarrh of the Stomach,' but he could not help me. I lived a month without solid food and when I tried to eat I would vomit. At this time I began taking Doctor Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, and in two weeks I was decidedly better. I am now in good health, and never felt better in my life. I have a better color, eat more, and have no distress after eating—having gained thirteen pounds since I began taking them.

That Shaw

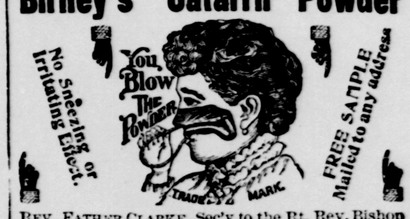

Will become the property of some popular young lady within the next four weeks. We do not dare to predict who will get it, but a "dark horse" is talked of and the ballots will come in with a rush within the next three weeks, therefore those interested want to redouble their energies so that their particular favorite will not be behind in this popular contest.

A Word About the Shaw Piano

The first pianos made by the company were placed on the market less than five years ago. Instantly the trade recognized their merits and put in bids for territory until at this time these instruments can be seen almost everywhere To be able to build such a good business in so short a time there must be great policy behind the house. The policy of the Shaw Piano Company, is first to build a good instrument, second, to advertise it largely and artistically. The first part of the policy, to build a good instrument, is amply testified to by the favor they have met with both from dealer and artist. The Shaw Piano is strictly a high grade first-class instrument, one that the purchasing public can have every confidence in. Messrs. S. C. Burnham & Co., of our city have for years been representing other first-class pianos but have been won by the construction, tone and quality of of this new aspirant for honors so that today they are bending all their energies in favor of the Matchless Shaw, as it is termed. With no remorse of conscience they claim it is the finest musical instrument in the piano line they have ever represented.

Judgiug from the above account of this wonderful piano is it any wonder that the contest now going on is attracting universal attention. Rally round your favorite lady, boys. See that she becomes the happy possessor of a SHAW.

Catarrh
AND
COLD IN THE HEAD
relieved instantly by one application of
Birney's Catarrh Powder

REV. FATHER CLARKE, Sec'y to the Rt. Rev. Bishop of Columbus, Ohio, writes;

GENTLEMEN:—I cannot say enough for your Powder. It has cured me of an aggravated attack of catarrh when nothing else could help me. Am delighted with it. All my friends to whom I administered samples are quite enthusiastic over it. The good sisters speak most encouragingly of their use of it in the Hospital under their care. I will do anything to speak a good word for the remedy to help others who are suffering.

M. E. FERGUSON, Custodian U. S. Appraiser's Stores, Chicago, writes:

GENTLEMEN:—Being almost entirely deaf for a number of years past and getting no relief from many so-called cures which I tried, was induced by a friend to try Dr. Birney's Catarrhal Powder for my deafness. Have recovered my hearing entirely, so that I can now hear a watch tick plainly, it being held 18 inches from my ear. I look upon it as a positive cure for deafness and have recommended its use to many of my friends and can say I have never heard of a case where it has failed to relieve.

TALMAGE'S SUBJECT "ANOTHER CHANCE."

WRITES US HIS USUAL SUNDAY SERMON.

"Another Chance" the Subject Thereof —People Who Think They Can Correct Their Mistakes in this World are Doomed to Disappointment.

There is a hovering hope in the minds of a vast multitude that there will be an opportunity in the next world to correct the mistakes of this; that, if we do make complete shipwreck of our earthly life, it will be on a shore up which we may walk to a palace; that, as a defendant may lose his case in the Circuit court, and carry it up to the Supreme court or Court of Chancery and get a reversal of judgment in his behalf, all the costs being thrown over on the other party, so, if we fail in the earthly trial, we may in the higher jurisdiction of eternity have the judgment of the lower court set aside, all the costs remitted, and we may be victorious defendants forever. My object in this sermon is to show that common sense, as well as my text, declares that such an expectation is chimerical. You say that the impenitent man, having got into the next world and seeing the disaster, will, as a result of that disaster, turn, the pain the cause of his reformation. But you can find ten thousand instances in this world of men who have done wrong and distress overtook them suddenly. Did the distress heal them? No; they went right on.

That man was flung of dissipations. "You must stop drinking," said the doctor, "and quit the fast life you are leading, or it will destroy you." The patient suffers paroxysm after paroxysm; but, under skillful medical treatment, he begins to sit up, begins to walk about the room, begins to go to business. And, lo! he goes back to the same grog shops for his morning dram, and his evening dram, and the drams between. Flat down again! Same doctor! Same physical anguish. Same medical warning. Now, the illness is more protracted; the liver is more stubborn, the stomach more irritable, and the digestive organs are more rebellious. But after awhile he is out again, goes back to the same dram shops, and goes the same round of sacrilege against his physical health.

He sees that his downward course is ruining his household, that his life is a perpetual perjury against his marriage vow, that that broken-hearted woman is so unlike the roseate young wife whom he married that her old school mates do not recognize her; that his sons are to be taunted for a life time by the father's drunkenness, that the daughters are to pass into life under the scarification of a disreputable ancestor. He is drinking up their happiness, their prospects for this life, and, perhaps, for the life to come. Sometimes an appreciation of what he is doing comes upon him. His nervous system is all a tangle. From crown of head to sole of foot he is one aching, rasping, crucifying, damning torture. Where is he? In hell on earth. Does it reform him?

After awhile he has delirum tremens, with a whole jungle of hissing reptiles let out on his pillow, and his screams horrify the neighors as he dashes out of his bed, crying: "Take these things off me!" As he sits pale and convalescent, the doctor says: "Now I want to have a plain talk with you, my dear fellow. The next attack of this kind you have you will be beyond all medical skill, and you will die." He gets better and goes forth into the same round again. This time medicine takes no effect. Consultation of physicians agree in saying there is no hope. Death ends the scene.

That process of inebriation, warning and dissolution is going on within stone's throw of you, going on in all the neighborhoods of christendom. Pain does not correct. Suffering does not reform. What is true in one sense is true in all senses, and will forever be so, and yet men are expecting in the next world purgatorial rejuvenation. Take up the printed reports of the prisons of the United States, and you will find that the vast majority of the incarcerated have been there before, some of them four, five, six times. With a million illustrations all working the other way in this world, people are expecting that distress in the next state will be salvatory. You can not imagine any worse torture in any other world than that which some men have suffered here, and without any salutary consequence.

Futhermore, the prospect of a reformation in the next world is more improbable than a reformation here. In this world the life started with innocence of infancy. In the case supposed, the other life will open with all the accumulated bad habits of many years upon him. Surely, it is easier to build a strong ship out of new timber than out of an old hulk that has been ground up in the breakers. If with innocence to start with in this life a man does not become godly, what prospect is there that in the next world, starting with sin, there would be a seraph evoluted? Surely the sculptor has more prospect of making a fine statue out of a block of pure white Parian marble than out of an old black rock seamed and cracked with the storms of half a century. Surely upon a clean, white sheet of paper it is easier to write a deed or a will, than upon a sheet of paper scribbled and blotted and torn from top to bottom. Yet men seem to think that, though the life that began here comparatively perfect turned out badly, the next life will succeed, though it starts with a dead failure.

Poneropolis was a city where King Philip of Thracia put all the bad people of his kingdom. If any man had opened a primary school at Poneropolis I do not think the parents from other cities would have sent their children there. Instead of amendment in the other world, all the associations, now that the good are evolved, will be degenerating and down. You would not want to send a man to a cholera or yellow fever hospital for his health; and the great lazaretto of the next world, containing the diseased and plague-struck, will be a poor place for moral recovery. If the surroundings in this world were crowded of temptation, the surroundings of the next world, after the righteous have passed up and on, will be 1,000 per cent more crowded of temptation.

Multitudes of men who are kept within bounds would say, "Go to, now! Let me get all out of this life there is in it. Come, gluttony, and inebriation, and uncleanness, and revenge, and all sensualities, and wait upon me! My life may be somewhat shortened in this world by dissoluteness, but that will only make heavenly indulgence on a larger scale the sooner possible. I will overtake the saints at last, and will enter the Heavenly Temple only a little later than those who behaved themselves here. I will on my way to heaven take a little wider excursion than those who were on earth pious, and I shall go to heaven via Gehenna and via Sheol." Another chance in the next world means free license and wild abandonment in this.

Suppose you were a party in an important case at law, and you knew from consultation with judges and attorneys that it would be tried twice, and the first trial would be of little importance, but that the second would decide everything; for which trial would you make the most preparation, for which retain the ablest attorneys, for which be most anxious about the attendance of witnesses? You would put all the stress upon the second trial, all the anxiety, all the expenditure, saying, "The first is nothing, the last is everything.' Give the race assurance of a second and more important trial in the subsequent life, and all the preparation for eternity would be "post mortem," post funeral, post sepulchral and the world with one jerk be pitched off into impiety and godlessness.

Furthermore, let me ask why a chance should be given in the next world if we have refused innumerable chances in this? Suppose you give a banquet, and you invite a vast number of friends, but one man declines to come, or treats your invitation with indifference. You in the course of twenty years give twenty banquets, and the same man is invited to them all, and treats them all in the same obnoxious way. After awhile you remove to another house, larger and better, and you again invite your friends, but send no invitation to the man who declined or neglected the other invitations. Are you to blame? Has he a right to expect to be invited after all the indignities he has done you? God in this world has invited us all to the banquet of his grace. He invited us by his Providence and his Spirit 365 days of every year since we knew our right hand from our left. If we declined it every time, or treated the invitation with indifference, and gave twenty or forty or fifty years of indignity on our part toward the banqueter, and at last he spreads the banquet in a more luxurious and kingly place, amid the heavenly gardens, have we a right to expect him to invite us again, and have we a right to blame him if he does not invite us

If twelve gates of salvation stood open twenty years or fifty years for our admission, and at the end of that time they are closed, can we complain of it and say: "These gates ought to be open again. Give us another chance?" If the steamer is to sail for Hamburg, and we want to get to Germany by that line, and we read in every evening and every morning newspaper that it will sail on a certain day, for two weeks we have that advertisement before our eyes, and then we go down to the docks fifteen minutes after it has shoved off into the stream and say: "Come back. Give me another chance. It is not fair to treat me in this way. Swing up to the dock again, and throw out planks and let me come on board." Such behavior would invite arrest as a madman.

You see that this idea lifts this world up from an important way station to a platform of stupendous issues, and makes all eternity whirl around this hour. But one trial for which all the preparation must be made in this world, or never made at all. That piles up all the emphases all the climaxes and all the destinies into life here. No other chance! O, how that augments the value and the imoportance of this chance!

Alexander with his army used to surround a city, and then would lift a great light in token to the people that, is they surrendered before that light went out, all would be well; but if once the light went out, then the battering-rams would swing against the wall, and demolition and disaster would follow. Well, all we need do for our present and everlasting safety if to make surrender to Christ, the king and conqueror—surrender of our hearts, surrender of our lives, surrender of everything. And he keeps a great light burning, light of gospel invitation, light kindled with the wood of the cross and flaming up against the dark night of our sin and sorrow. Surrender while that great light continues to burn, for after it goes out there will be no other opportunity of making peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. Talk of another chance! Why, this is a supernal chance!

In the time of Edward the Sixth, at the battle of Musselburgh, a private soldier, seeing that the Earl of Hurtley had lost his helmet, took off his own helmet and put it upon the head of the earl; and the head of the private soldier uncovered, he was soon slain, while his commander rode safely out of the battle. But in our case, instead of a private soldier offering helmet to an earl, it is a king putting his crown upon an unworthy subject, the king dying that we might live. Tell it to all points of the compass. Tell it to night and day. Tell it to all earth and heaven. Tell it to all centuries, all ages, all millenniums, that we have such a magnificent chance in this world that we need no other chance in the next.

I am in the burnished judgment hall of the last day. A great white throne is lifted, but the judge has not yet taken it. While we are waiting for his arrival I hear immortal spirits in conversation. "What are you waiting here for?" says a soul that went up from Madagascar to a soul that ascended from America. The latter says: "I came from America, where forty years I heard the gospel preached, and Bible read, and from the prayer that I learned in infancy at my mother's knee until my last hour I had gospel advantage, but, for some reason, I did not move the Christian choice, and I am here waiting for the judge to give me a new trial and another chance." "Strange!" says the other; "I had but one gospel call in Madagascar, and I accepted it, and I do not need another chance."

"Why are you here?" says one who on earth had feeblest intellect to one who had great brain, and silvery tongue, and scepters of influence. The latter responds: "Oh, I knew more than my fellows. I mastered libraries, and had learned titles from colleges; and my name was a synonym for eloquence and power. And yet I neglected my soul, and I am here waiting for a new trial." "Strange," says the one of the feeble earthly capacity; "I knew but little of worldly knowledge, but I knew Christ, and made him my partner, and I have no need of another chance."

Now the ground trembles with the approaching chariot. The great folding doors of the hall swing open. "Stand back!" cry the celestial ushers. "Stand back, and let the judge of quick and dead pass through!" He takes the throne, and looking over the throng of nations, he says: "Come to judgment, the last judgment, the only judgment!" By one flash from the throne all the history of each one flames forth to the vision of himself and all others. "Divide!" says the judge to the assembly. "Divide!" echo the walls. "Divide!" cry the guards angelic.

And now the immortals separate, rushing this way and that, and after awhile there is a great aisle between them, and a great vacuum widening and widening, and the judge, turning to the throng on one side, says: "He that is righteous, let him be righteous still, and he that is holy, let him be holy still;" and then, turning toward the throng on the opposite side, he says: "He that is unjust, let him be unjust still, and he that is filthy, let him be filthy still;" and then, lifting one hand toward each group, he declares: "If the tree fall toward the south or toward the north, in the place where the tree falleth, there it shall be." And then I hear something jar with a great sound. It is the closing of the Book of Judgment. The judge ascends the stairs behind the throne. The hall of the last assize is cleared and adjourned forever.

A NARROW ESCAPE!

How it Happened.

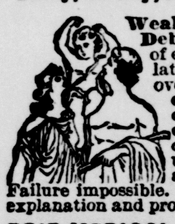

The following remarkable event in a lady's life will interest the reader: "For a long time I had a terrible pain at my heart, which fluttered almost incessantly. I had no appetite and could not sleep. I would be compelled to sit up in bed and belch gas from my stomach until I thought every minute would be my last. There was a feeling of oppression about my heart, and I was afraid to draw a full breath. I couldn't sweep a room without sitting down and resting; but, thank God, by the help of New Heart Cure all that is past and I feel like another woman. Before using the New Heart Cure I had taken different so-called remedies and been treated by doctors without any benefit until I was both discouraged and disgusted. My husband bought me a bottle of Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure, and am happy to say I never regretted it, as I now have a splendid appetite and sleep well. I weighed 125 pounds when I began taking the remedy, and now I weigh 130½. Its effect in my case has been truly marvelous. It far surpasses any other medicine I have ever taken or any benefit I ever received from physicians."—Mrs. Harry Starr, Pottsville, Pa., October 12, 1892.

Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure is sold on a positive guarantee by all druggists, or by the Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind., on receipt of price, $1 per bottle, six bottles $5, express prepaid. This great discovery by an eminent specialist in heart disease, contains neither opiates nor dangerous drugs.

LEGAL NOTICES.

EXECUTION SALE OF REAL ESTATE—STATE OF WISCONSIN, CIRCUIT COURT FOR ROCK COUNTY.

First National Bank of Janesville, plaintiff vs. D. P. Smith and John Gateley, defendants.

Notice is hereby given that by virtue of and in pursuance of an execution issued out of the circuit court for Rock county, Wisconsin, on the 19th day of December 1893, in the above entitled action and to me directed and delivered, I have levied upon and shall offer for sale and sell at public vendue or sale to the highest and best bidder on the 30th day of July, 1894, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day at the front door of the postoffice in the city of Janesville, Rock county, Wisconsin all the right title and interest which the above named defendant D. P. Smith, had on the 11th day of November 1893, the day on which an attachment of said property was made in the said action in and to the following described real estate, to-wit: Lots numbered one to twenty-eight, both inclusive of D. P. Smith's Park View addition to Janesville, Rock County, Wisconsin; lots numbered ten to thirteen both inclusive of Bump and Smith's addition to Janesville, and also all the right, title and interest which said defendant D. P. Smith had on the 19th day of December 1893, the day when the judgment in the above entitled action was entered and docketed in the office of the clerk of circuit court for Rock county, Wisconsin, in and to all of the following tracts of land, to-wit:

A part of lot two in section twenty-six, town three, range twelve, beginning at the intersection of the south line of said lot two with the east line of the Madison road, thence northwest on the east line of said road twenty-three rods, thence east and parallel to the south line of said lot to rock river, thence south on the west bank of said river to the south line of said lot, thence west on the south line of said lot to the place of beginning; also a part of lot three of said section, town and range, beginning at the intersection of the east and west quarter line of said section with the east line of the Madison road, thence south on the east line of said road 6 73-100 chains, then east and parallel to said quarter line 1038-100 chains of Rock river, thence northerly on the west bank of said river to said quarter section line, thence west on said quarter section line to the place of beginning (except the right of way of the C. & N. W. R. R. Co. through said parcels) which are not included in D. P. Smith's Park View addition as platted; or so much of the same as may be be sufficient to satisfy the amount due on said execution with interest and costs.

THE PLAIN TRUTH TELLS.

We're on the Topmost Wave

OF COMMERCIAL SUCCESS WITH OUR

Death = Knell = Sale.

WE TELL THE PLAIN TRUTH.

What better evidence could we have of the public implicitly believing our announcements than that our store is crowded daily. There must be big attractions for people, We've got would-be competitors on the run with their decoys, their fakes, which attract nothing but passing smiles from those who read their advert sements. No wonder other dealers' tempers are ruffled somewhat while we ride serenely on our successful tidal wave.

"Scrubbing-a-floor" and "moving-a-shelf' sales won't work here in Janesville. The people are onto such rackets, and are not to be caught by such palpably nonsensical and silly assertions. Values--genuine, honest, nineteenth century bargains--are what the people want. They find 'em here every time, and, enormous as our patronage is, Kimball, the old reliable is making new friends every hour, while retaining all the old ones with hands of forged steel.

Indiana Miners Still Hold Out.

BRAZIL, Ind., June 19.—The miners of this district did not return to work yesterday in a body, as was predicted. Meetings were held throughout the county, and finally it was agreed to meet in a general mass meeting in this city to-morrow and determine whether to return to work or abide by the decision of the state convention. A few block coal strikers, however, defied all threats of molestation a nd returned to work.

Outbreak Feared in Alabama.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., June 19.—A mass-meeting was held by the striking miners yesterday in the woods near Adamsville, twelve miles west of here. More than 2,000 miners at tended. Special trains were held in readiness to transport troops in case of an outbreak, but their services were not required. Armed men approached watchmen at the trestle on the Georgia Pacific road last night, and after forcing them to flight used dynamite on the trestle. Every mine in the district is heavily guarded for fear of attack.

PUNXSUTAWNEY, Pa., June 19.—Trouble was reported at Walton, one of the Bell Lewis and Yates mines, during which a great many shots were exchanged by the strikers. No one was injured. All is quiet at Horatio. About 180 new men are now working in the mine.

Resumption at Martin's Ferry.

MARTIN'S FERRY, Ohio, June 19.—The miners at the Laughlin works, Gaylord, Long Run, Bellaire and other mines have returned to work, and a general breakup is expected. The Wheeling Creek miners are still out. Several factories are preparing to resume, in view of a prospective fuel supply.

The Eastern Wild West.

Miss Arizona, at Wild West show—Oh, isn't it just wonderful? Miss New York—It is to me, but I presumed it would be very tame to you. Miss Arizona—Oh, no, indeed! I never saw anything like it before; but then, you know, this is my first trip East, and I've always lived on a ranch.—Puck.

Brandy Drops to School Children.

The board of health has determined to stop the sale to minors of candy containing brandy. A chemical report made to the board showed that six "brandy drops" contain as much alcohol as an ordinary cocktail. There has been a large sale of these drops near public schools.—Philadelphia Ledger.
